

National Taiwan Normal University
Graduate Institute of Translation and Interpretation
Regulations Governing Professional Practicum for the Master's Program

14 January 2000

First amendment adopted at the 1st Institute Affairs Meeting of the 1st Semester, Academic Year 1999
Second amendment adopted at the 2nd Institute Affairs Meeting of the 1st Semester, Academic Year 2009
Amended and adopted at the 3rd Institute Affairs Meeting of the 2nd Semester, Academic Year 2012

Article 1. These Regulations are hereby enacted to strengthen students' professional competence in translation practice and to facilitate the application of what they have learned.

Article 2. Students in the Translation and Interpreting Tract may elect to undertake either the "Professional Translation Practicum" or the "Professional Interpreting Practicum".

Article 3. Students participating in the professional practicum may undertake such practicum in the form of an institutional internship or as a freelance translator, or shall complete practical translation assignments as designated by the course instructor, to be accomplished in accordance with the prescribed timetable.

Article 4. Upon completion of the practicum, students shall properly retain all records of their work (including written and audio materials) for the purposes of inspection.

Article 5. Rating assessment shall be conducted by the course instructor on the basis of the standard of the student's work, their professional attitude, and the thoroughness of error correction.

Article 6. These Regulations shall apply to students admitted from Academic Year 2012 onwards.

Article 7. These Regulations shall come into effect upon approval by the Institute Affairs Meeting; the same shall apply to any amendments hereto.